Welcome college students!

University Catholic offers many ways for you to grow in your faith, get involved and connect with other Catholic students on campus. All college students are welcome at UCat Masses and events.

Each Sunday we host a free Sunday Supper at Cathedral's Fleming Center at 5PM.

Sunday Suppers are a great way to meet other Catholic students and build community while enjoying a great meal. Adoration and confession are available from 7:30 – 8:45 pm and Sunday Mass is at 9 pm at the Cathedral of the Incarnation.

After Mass, we linger outside in the parking lot, enjoy some refreshments and make some great connections.

Please join us!

eGiving makes it easy to give anytime, anywhere. Just scan the online giving QR code above or visit us at: www.osvhub.com/cathedralnashville/giving/funds

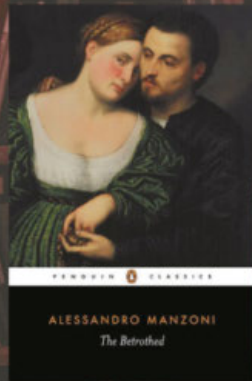

Online donations through OSV sustain our parish ministries and keep our offertory consistent. Plus, it's a quick and easy way to support your parish!

If you make a switch today, you'll be giving steady support to the parish ministries you care about most. Thank you for helping us reach our goals!

Fr. Rhodes Bolster, the new Chaplain of University Catholic, seeks help in offering Christian hospitality to college students through weekly Sunday Suppers.

Individuals or church groups are needed to sponsor weekly meals.

The Sunday Suppers help build a home away from home for college students and can be a first step in building relationships with them.

We feed 80 -100 college students every Sunday from late August until May.

Check out the details by scanning the QR code and please help UCat cast our net wide by signing up to sponsor a Sunday Supper.

Connecting Catholic Business Professionals

College is back in session and we recently had the opportunity to sit down with University Catholic Chaplain, Father Rhodes Bolster, to find out a little more about this very tall and very zealous man.

Fr. Bolster was born and raised in Nashville, TN and loves being 10 minutes away from the house he grew up in. Prior to being the chaplain at UCat, Fr. Bolster was the Associate Pastor at St. Philip the Apostle parish in Franklin for two years. After graduation from high school, Fr. Bolster attended the Catholic University of America in Washington, DC. He then entered seminary at the Pontifical College Josephinum in Columbus, Ohio where he earned his B.A. in philosophy. He then attended seminary in Rome at the Pontifical North American College. He was ordained to the priesthood in 2019. Fr. Rhodes Bolster became Chaplain of University Catholic in 2022. Fr. Bolster loves speaking Spanish, playing ultimate frisbee, and reading books.

At what age did you discover the call to the Priesthood?

RB: I actually knew in junior high. I was always good at learning the faith but it was by getting involved in Fraternus (a Catholic Brotherhood for all ages teaching virtues of Christ as the path to authentic manliness) where I began to learn to really pray and develop a personal relationship with Christ. It was like my faith and life went from black & white to color. I started to feel a deep sense of peace and joy and I thought, whatever this is, I want more!

What was it like living in Rome?

RB: Rome taught me how to be a "Roman" Catholic. Our faith ties us to a particular city. Here in Tennessee we are about 4% Catholic so it is something to experience being Catholic and being in Rome. Here in the states you may see some sacred catholic places or shrines if you drive to them but there it's saturated into the culture. You will be driving along and it's not uncommon to come upon an enormous roadside Marian shrine that is just beautiful.

What saints or people have inspired you?

RB: Two that come to mind are Saint Alphonsus Liguori and Blessed Miguel Pro.

St. Liguori was a go getter, very zealous, faithful and smart and a prolific writer. Miguel Pro was a Jesuit priest who was executed by a firing squad in Mexico for exercising his priestly ministry. Blessed Miguel Pro had to conduct his ministry undercover because of persecution. He would dress up in all sorts of occupations. When the police stopped him once asking if he'd seen Miguel Pro he replied, "No! Why would he be so stupid as to be out in the open around here?"

He had a great sense of humor, was cheerful and courageous. I love these two because they teach us it IS POSSIBLE for a priest to be Holy.

Is there anything else you would like people to know about you?

RB: I need prayers.

And I juggle.

Humbly and humorously stated, Father Bolster! Your presence will be a blessing to us all!

Welcome Committee

Are you interested in helping welcome our newest members to the Cathedral parish?

A Cathedral new member welcome committee is forming and we need volunteers!

An organizational planning meeting is set for August 21 in the office conference room from 9:45-11AM. We will discuss the goals of the committee and plan our next event, a new parishioner welcome brunch set for the fall.

Please call the office with any questions.

Cursillo – A Spiritual Resurrection – Mark Your Calendars!

There's a movement in the Diocese of Nashville that's intended to help individual Catholics develop an understanding of what it means to lead a fully Christian life. It's called Cursillo, and at its simplest, it's a three-day weekend at Camp Marymount in Fairview, TN.

Really, it's an adventure for adults to rediscover being Catholic and explore how we individually bring being Catholic to your daily life. On top of that it's a great way to make true friends by sharing the experience with Catholics from other parishes in the diocese.

Mark your calendars for the Fall weekend dates.
