The Cathedral of the Incarnation is the third Cathedral in the Diocese of Nashville.

The first Cathedral was built in 1837 by Bishop Richard Pius Miles, O.P., first Bishop of Nashville, on the slopes of Campbell's Knob in Nashville. Two years later, after refurbishing the building, Bishop Miles named the small church Holy Rosary.

Spurred by the purchase of Campbell's Knob at the site of the Tennessee State Capital and the changing land use pattern with the coming of the railroad, Bishop Miles selected a nearby site for the second cathedral – Saint Mary of the Seven Sorrows, which was completed in 1847.

The fifth Bishop of Nashville, Bishop Thomas Sebastian Byrne, envisioned a new and larger Cathedral to the west of the center of the city. He acquired property near Vanderbilt University in 1902 with the intention of constructing a new building which would serve as the third Cathedral of the Diocese. Work began in 1907 on the episcopal residence which was finished in the next year. With the completion of the rectory, Bishop Byrne then built the Cathedral school and Pro-Cathedral until the church building could be completed. With completion of the Pro-Cathedral in 1909 the Cathedral Parish was established at its location in the 2000 block of West End Avenue.

It was in 1910 that the foundations for the Cathedral of the Incarnation were set into the ground. First to rise above those foundation stones was the bell tower. Next came the building itself. The entire building was completed and dedicated on July 26, 1914 with a solemn and majestic celebration. Since that date, our Cathedral has served the Bishops and people of the Catholic Church in Tennessee with dignity and grace. The church was renovated in 1937 by Bishop Adrienne, and again in 1987 by Bishop Niedergeses. Both times the work of renewal was in anticipation of the anniversary of the Diocese of Nashville.

Respect Life Meeting

Happy New Year! This past year was momentous for the pro-life movement. Now is the time to begin the work of creating a culture that values life at every stage – from conception to death. It is a time for healing wounds and repairing social divisions. Let us come together to build a society and economy that supports marriages and families, where every woman has the support and resources she needs to bring her child into this world in love, where every human-being, regardless of age or ability, is provided dignity and respect. We would like your input and ideas on how to accomplish this. If you would like to help us, please join us on Sunday, February 12th at 9:30 am in Room 304 of St. Albert Hall. For more information or if you want to email your ideas, please contact Roy Silveira at roysilveira@gmail.com or 201-674-3233.

The Room in the Inn has been updated for the Cathedral of the Incarnation! We host 20 men every Tuesday evening. We provide dinner, showers, a bed, breakfast and lunch. We need about 20 volunteers each week to make this a success. We are in need of INNKEEPERS and DRIVERS. Please consider helping with these two very important roles. If you are interested, please contact the parish office at 615-327-2330 or info@cathedralnashville.org.

Besides innkeepers and drivers, we need help with set up, providers of breakfast, lunch and dinner, and laundry assistance. To sign up, the link is here: <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/30E054FA9A92B0-room>

Or help by donating supplies! A gift list is available on the Amazon website where you can purchase items. These items will ship to the Cathedral of the Incarnation office. The list can be accessed here: <https://www.amazon.com/registries/custom/21B0GFJ6L2DWW/guest-view>

Thank you for supporting and helping this important ministry!
