Alleluia! He is Risen! Alleluia!

As we emerge from the sacred liturgies of Holy Week, and journey forward through the Easter season, we extend our heartfelt gratitude to each and every one of you. Your unwavering dedication, tireless efforts, and boundless love made our Easter celebration truly special.

The profound significance of the Holy Week services—the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday, the solemn Good Friday services, the glorious Easter Vigil, and finally, all the Easter Sunday Masses – were a testament to those who labored to make each liturgy so memorable.

Our choir and musicians, sacristans, altar servers, eucharistic ministers, lectors, ushers, flower decorating volunteers, RCIA team and the Knights of Columbus worked diligently behind the scenes, ensuring that every detail was attended to with reverence and care. Their commitment to serving our community is a testament to their faith and devotion.

We extend our deep appreciation to Bishop Spalding for being with us throughout Holy Week. His spiritual leadership is a beacon of light that guided us through this sacred time. His wisdom, compassion, and unwavering faith inspire us all.

Our devoted priests and deacons, who tirelessly serve our Cathedral community throughout the year are always a great blessing. Their unwavering commitment to our spiritual well-being, their compassionate guidance, and their tireless efforts enrich our faith.

To our parish staff—the unsung heroes who labor diligently day in and day out—we extend our gratitude. Your dedication keeps our Cathedral running smoothly, and your warm smiles make everyone feel welcome.

The large crowds that gathered for our Easter celebrations were a testament to the strength of our community. Families, friends, and visitors came together to celebrate the resurrection of our Lord. Your presence filled our sacred space with joy and hope.

To each person who attended our services, supported our ministries, and contributed to the beauty of our worship, we say: Thank you! Your presence, prayers, and generosity sustain us. Together, we are the living stones that build our Cathedral—a place of solace, inspiration, and grace.

May the risen Christ continue to bless and guide us as we journey forward. Let us carry the spirit of Easter with us always, sharing its message of love, renewal, and eternal hope.
