The Cathedral Community Congratulates Kevin F. Raymond Director of Faith Formation and Outreach

We are delighted to announce that Kevin Raymond has been appointed the Director of Faith Formation and Outreach for our Cathedral community. In addition to his existing role as RCIA director, Kevin will now take on new responsibilities.

Kevin possesses a wealth of experience, having already served our community for many years. His education background and deep knowledge of catechesis will undoubtedly enhance our faith formation programs.

The Director of Faith Formation and Outreach plays a crucial role in nurturing and guiding the spiritual growth of a community. Kevin is tasked with developing a culture of discipleship and ongoing faith formation for people of all ages and stages in their faith journey. By working closely with clergy, catechists, and ministry leaders, he will ensure and oversee formation programs that align with the mission and teachings of the Catholic faith.

In addition to oversight of the parish faith formation programs, Kevin will also be responsible for providing information across our various communication platforms, as well as forming opportunities for parishioners to gather in social and educational settings. His creative background and familiarity with marketing will be a great asset to these vital areas. We extend our heartfelt gratitude to Kevin for his unwavering dedication and service to the Cathedral community and his willingness to accept this new and challenging role.

Happy Mother's Day!

Today celebrate our mothers and the incredibly important role they play in all our lives. From the beginning of Christianity, Christians have had a strong devotion to the Blessed Mother. Honoring our mothers and motherhood is deeply ingrained in the Catholic psyche. The fact that God chose to enter our world through a mother is evidence of His own esteem of motherhood. Mary is the crown jewel, the masterpiece of all God's creation. In a sense every mother shares in this dignity. God Bless the Mothers of our church as well as all Mothers, and may we pray for the continuing vocation of Motherhood!

Rosaries Available

May is the month we celebrate Mary and it's the perfect time to pray the rosary. There are rosaries available in the Narthex and Sacristy entrance that you may take!

Sunday, May 12th is the final day for Religious Education for our 2023-2024 year. Our amazing students deserve a break to enjoy their summer! Pray for a safe and healthy vacation and we'll be excited to welcome them back in September for our 2024-2025 school year!!

BEFORE THE ANGELUS

The inscription of the Angelus underneath the clerestory windows has not always been there. In 1937 the original inscription was painted over with the Angelus. The letters at that time were only three inches high, and in 1987 they were painted fifteen inches high so that they could be more easily seen. In 1987 paint remover revealed the original inscription.

On the south wall of the nave, on either side of the arch there were four words - EGO SUM QUI SUM. This is from the revelation of the name of God to Moses in Exodus 3:14 and translates as "I am Who I am," In 1937 that was replaced with AVE REX which means "Hail King". Also on the arch were two other words: VENITE ADOREMUS. For those who may remember or love the Latin version of the Christmas carol "O Come All Ye Faithful", VENITE ADOREMUS translates as "Come let us adore Him" - the refrain of the song. It was a common invitatory used for the Morning Divine Office when it was recited daily in Latin by the priests and religious.

Along the west side were nine Latin words. The first six came from the refrain of a famous 8th Century Ambrosian hymn - CHRISTUS VINCIT, CHRISTUS REGNAT, CHRISTUS IMPERAT: Christ conquers, Christ rules, Christ commands. However, it is most likely the basis for the hymn more familiar to us, "To Jesus Christ Our Sovereign Lord". ("Christ Jesus, Victor! Christ Jesus, Ruler! Christ Jesus, Lord and Redeemer!") The next three words on the west wall combined with the four on the north nave wall over the vestibule doors - CHRISTUS AB OMNI MALO PLEBEM SUAM DEFENDIT. This phrase, "Christ protects His people from all evil," does not seem to be a direct reference to any known text.

The inscription was completed along the east clerestory wall with two quotations from the Book of Psalms. The first phrase was VENITE ET VIDETE OPERA DOMINI ("Come and behold the deeds of the Lord" Ps 46:9) and the second one was BEATUS VIR QUI SPERAT IN EO ("Happy the man who takes refuge in Him." Ps 34:9).

IN 1987 when the Angelus was repainted in larger letters, no one remembered what the original words were. One reason is that there is no recognizable pattern to the collection of phrases that made up the old inscription, as well as no one had seen them for fifty years. Another reason being that the letters were quite small and they were located in boxes above each of the columns. There was an elaborate pattern of scrolling and faces of angels that connected the boxes.

Part of the oral history of the diocese is the interesting possibility that Bishop Byrne had originally intended to give the Cathedral a title other than "Incarnation". This other name for the parish has been lost to history, but could there be a clue in the original Latin inscription? It is not hard to understand why the "Angelus" replaces the original inscription in 1937. Since the title of the Cathedral is Cathedral of the Incarnation and the Annunciation is the patronal feast of the parish the "Angelus" is an appropriate and obvious choice for the church interior.

The feast day of Our Lady of Fatima is on May 13th. This day commemorates the apparitions of the Virgin Mary to three shepherd children in Fatima, Portugal, in 1917.
